Brilliant D.

For the season of 1915 at my farm on Boggs' Lane, near Richmond at

$10 to Insure Living Colt

I have stood Brilliant D. for the last three years and know he is a great breeding horse. For the last few years his colts have outsold any $10 horse in the county.

At same time and place, will stand my promising young Jack

Long Tom at $10 to Insure Living Colt

This Jack is of big bone good head and ears and must be seen to be appreciated. His colts are of exceptional size and quality. Long Tom needs no stirr blown on him. Every man that has ever bred to him is a life long friend and patron.

Money due when colts are foaled, mare parted with or bred elsewhere. Mares kept on grass at 10 cents per day. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

near Red River, and it is thought that he is hiding near that point.

MERCER COUNTY.

Eleven shares of stock in the Mercer National Bank were sold at Harrodsburg last week at $184 per share.

Mr. F. A. Weigel, of the Southern Express Company, of Louisville, and Miss Maud VanArsdale, of Harrodsburg, who married last week, left shortly after the ceremony for a bridal trip to the Panama Canal.

Mr. R. N. Teater, of near Harrodsburg, brought to that city a four legged chicken that was hatched on his place the 5th inst. The little chick lived for four days, walking on all four legs quite naturally.

Miss Sue Vincent Dalton, of Harrodsburg, and Mr. Chester Reese, of Winchester, were married Thursday evening at the Presbyterian church in Harrodsburg. The young couple are of prominent families of the Blue-grass and are very popular in social circles.

CLARK COUNTY.

Attorneys of Winchester argued before Judge J. M. Benton in the appeal of the "dry" from an opinion of the Contest Board, which recently found the prohibition election held in that city invalid. Judge Benton took the matter under advisement.

Gurthrie Sharp, a young man living near Red River in Estill county, was arrested in Winchester last week for forging a check for $15 on Mr. S. G. Sharp. About nineteen Clark county citizens have been summoned to serve on the Federal jury in Richmond this month.

JESSAMINE COUNTY.

Nicholasville is calling for a reorganization of its old Commercial Club, which several years ago did much for their town.

Now for the blind tigers. They will spring up like magic. If there is a concert of action on the part of the citizens, the unlawful sale of liquor can be nipped in the bud. Let the officers get busy.—Jessamine News.

Mr. Stephen Snowden, of Nicholasville, who was summoned to Winchester as a witness in the Wallace trial received a telegram last Wednesday morning that his handsome home had been destroyed by fire. The cost of the house was nearly $6,000 and he only carried about $2,000 insurance.

GARRARD COUNTY.

The historic property known as "Camp Dick Robinson," located about six miles from Lancaster, in lower Garrard, was sold by Jacob Trumbo to C. M. Dean, formerly of Jessamine county. The house and seven acres of land bring $6,300. It is said to have been the first Federal Camp south of the Ohio river.

Mr. Orville Buck has been selected as chief of police at Lancaster, successor of Luther Herron, who handed in his resignation.

It was reported last week that the robbers that blew the safe of the Lancaster postoffice secured about $250, after the auditor had checked up the office he found only about $8 short, so they didn't get such a big haul as was at first expected.

FAYETTE COUNTY.

Six students of State University were suspended by the faculty for hazing. Two of the number were seniors and they will be prevented from graduating, as the suspension is for the remainder of the term.

Mr. Rankin Clemons, probably the largest land owner in Central Kentucky, is critically ill at his home near Lexington, of Bright's disease. He is 91 years of age. He owns several hundred acres of fine land in Mercer, a large tract in Jessamine, Woodford and Fayette.

Roger Maupin, of Lexington, formerly a fireman on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, was ground to pieces by the wheels of a train on the L. & N. road, six miles west of Frankfort last Tuesday night. It is supposed that he was riding on the outside of a freight train and probably lost his hold and fell to his death.

Making Good Work Possible.

As long as one is on his feet, he can work after a fashion, no matter how badly he feels. But you cannot do good work—have ambition and energy, feel that life is worth living—with sluggish bowels or torpid liver. Foley Cathartic Tablets do away with that drowsy, dull, tired feeling. They never gripe or cause nausea. They're wholesome, cleansing and healthful. Most satisfactory for stout persons. Sold everywhere.—Adv. Apr.

Married.

Last Wednesday Mr. Edgar Todd, of this city, and Miss Dot Chowning, of Chaplin, Ky., were quietly married at the home of the bride, the Rev. Paul Rains, of the Bloomfield Christian church performing the ceremony. Mr. Todd is one of our enterprising young business men, an electrician by profession. The bride is a pretty and accomplished young school teacher. After the ceremony and the congratulations and good wishes of their friends, the happy young couple left for Cincinnati where they spent their honeymoon. They will make their home in this city, and have many friends here who wish them a long life of happiness.
